Saturday, April 22, 10:00 AM, Tawny Oaks Visitor Center, Edelstein, IL

Address: 715 W Singing Woods Rd, Edelstein, IL 61526

If I guessed correctly, this should be a wonderful chance to see bluebells! We will do the outer loop of the trails, approximately 4 miles total, including several hills. The valley in the middle of the loop is normally covered in bluebells, with a few daffodils thrown in for accent. After the hike, feel free to stop at Forest Park Nature Center for Earth Day and the first opportunity to buy Camp Wokanda Maple Syrup this year.

No dogs allowed. No toilets are available and parking is limited. We will be starting at the West Gate Parking Lot. There is a Fast Stop gas station in Towanda for bathroom break.

Address: 421 North Sterling Avenue, West Peoria, IL 61604

We will meet at the front entrance to the cemetery for a hike led by Friends of Rocky Glen President David Pittman. He has agreed to combine a historic cemetery walk with a guided hike in Horseshoe Bottoms which gives us a two for one deal...the best of both worlds! No pets on cemetery property please, but our four legged friends are welcome at Horseshoe Bottoms. The hike will be a minimum of 90 minutes and may stretch a bit over 2 hours with fairly level terrain. What better way to spend a Saturday morning in May?!

Please join us for a hike along the Rock Island trail starting in Wyoming, Illinois. The stretch of the trail from here to Toulon has many beautiful sights. Address: 10956 N. Dickson Mounds Rd, Lewistown, IL 61542

Dickson Mounds, an Illinois State Museum, is about 45 miles southwest of Peoria so we would encourage carpooling. Join us for a hike that will start at the Picnic Hill parking lot (NOT the Museum parking lot) where there is a picnic area and restroom facility. These trails connect and range from 0.55 to 0.77 miles so we can loop them together for as much hiking as we want. Pets are welcome if leashed. Club members are encouraged to bring a sack lunch, have a post hike picnic, then spend some time wandering the museum if they so desire...all optional, of course. Admission to the museum is free, but donations are appreciated.

FIRST QUARTER 2023 EVENT REPORTS

2023-1 Saturday, January 21, 2023, Detweiler sledding hill to Route 6 and back

Eleven people showed up for a beautiful hike on this segment of the River Bluff Trail.

Hiking Members: Priska Lauber, Bonnie Tometict, Carol Raines, John Jackson, Ed Coleman, Andy Shull

2023-2 Saturday, January 28, 2023, Starved Rock State Park

We started our hiking trip from Peoria on a snowy morning. Carol, Guillermo and myself carpoled and met Bonnie, John, Celeste and Mary at the Starved Rock Lodge at 9:30 am. Snowflakes surrounded us at the beginning of our hike. Our first stop was “Lover’s Leap Overlook,” where we were a bit disappointed that we didn’t see any Bald Eagles. We continued to hike to the “Eagle Cliff Overlook”, which is my favorite outlook, and were excited to spot two Bald Eagles. We enjoyed our hike along the river, checked out the various rock formations and waterfalls, and made it to the “LaSalle Canyon”. The trails are well marked and in great shape. We enjoyed our lunch near the fireplace at the Lodge Restaurant around 2pm. Hiking at Starved Rock is always so much fun!

Hiking Members: Carol Raines, Guillermo Ortega-Morales, Bonnie & John Jackson, Celeste Hansen, Mary Reiter

Hike Leader: Priska Lauber

2023-3 Saturday, February 11, Annual Meeting and Banquet, Barracks Cater Inn

Our annual meeting and banquet was held at 6:00 PM at Barrack's Cater Inn. We voted to accept the following slate of officers: President, Dave Grebner; Vice President, Bonnie Jackson; Secretary, Angie Madison; Treasurer, Carol Raines. In addition, we unanimously voted to accept the new by-laws.

After dinner, we were treated to a wonderful slide-show presentation by Sheldon Shafer of his trip to the Galapagos Islands. He explained how a land trip to Galapagos is better than a cruise, and clued us in on how to plan it oneself, making the trip much more affordable than a cruise or going through a travel agency. By the time it was over, many of realized what an affordable and fascinating trip it truly is. I would not be surprised if a few people are planning their own trip as I write this!

The food was great, the company was great, and the presentation was fascinating and informative. It was great to have everybody together for the evening after so many months of Covid isolation. Special thanks to Sheldon for his wonderful presentation.

Event Leader: Bonnie Jackson

2023-4 Saturday, February 25, Washington Park Trails

We had a cool day starting out at 10 am at 34 degrees. However, eleven hardy people showed up. We had a new visitor Angie from Pekin who plans to sign up as a member. We parked near the farm store at the far west corner of Cherry Tree Shopping Center. We hiked 6.59 miles on the Washington paved trails. All seemed to enjoy the conversation and social time, not to mention the exercise we all got. It was good seeing everyone again; we are all anxious for Spring and more sunshine!

Hiking Members: Walt Klypchak, Susan Hood, Rob Alexander, Andy & Cherie Shull, Eric Hutchison, Kathy Jones, Mary Greenhood, Carol Raines, and Dave Grebner

Hiking Guest: Angie

Hike Leader: LaVerne Wilson

2023-5 Saturday, March 11, Rock Island Trail, Alta

We were fortunate that the rain held off this afternoon as we hiked 5.53 miles on the fairly dry, flat Rock Island Trail from the main trailhead to the Kickapoo Creek Bridge. As we entered the Kickapoo Creek Recreation Area for a short break, we saw a herd of deer that included a couple of bucks. We enjoyed walking past lovely homes and farms, and having the opportunity to socialize on this pleasant walk.

Hiking members: Eric Hutchison, Mary Reiter, Celeste Hansen, Dave Grebner and Scooby, Carol Raines, Annjee Springer and Pearl, LaVerne Wilson, Walt Klypchak, Barb Johnson, Rob Alexander, Andy and Cherie Shull, and Susan Hood.

Hike Leader & Assistants: Dianne, Cecilia, and Iván Wyant
